

The Division of Youth and Young Adult Ministry
presents:

The Third Annual

John Bosco
Day

January 30, 2014

PURPOSE:

Annually, the Division of Youth and Young Adult Ministry gathers parish and school staff members throughout the Archdiocese of Baltimore to discuss vision regarding our Church's efforts in the evangelization and catechesis of young people.

TENTATIVE SCHEDULE:

- 9:45 Arrival, Coffee, Social
- 10:00 Welcome
Ice-Breaker
Morning Prayer: Liturgy of the Hours
- 10:30 Preparation for the Sacrament of Confirmation:
Doorway for the New Evangelization
- 12:00 Lunch Break — (It's on us!)
- 12:45 Resiliency in Faith
- 2:15 Final Announcements / Door Prizes
- 2:45 Close

RSVP:

To assist us in being good stewards, please RSVP to ssmith@archbalt.org with name, parish/school, any dietary restrictions and shirt size by Thursday, January 23.

OUR SPEAKERS:

Fr. John Rapisarda is a priest of the Archdiocese of Baltimore. Having been ordained in 2008, he currently serves as the Associate Pastor at Our Lady of Perpetual Help in Ellicott City and as Director of Catholic Campus Ministry at University of Maryland, Baltimore County (UMBC).

Cora Welsh is a Child Life Specialist at Johns Hopkins Hospital and is currently pursuing a Masters in Pastoral Studies through Loyola University. She conducted research on what makes for resilient faith during an internship with the Division of Youth and Young Adult Ministry

SITE:

We will be returning to St. Michael Catholic Church, Poplar Springs. For directions, please use this address:

1125 St. Michael's Road
Mt. Airy, MD 21771-3299
(410) 442-1486