FOR PRISON VOLUNTEERS & THOSE INTERSTED IN VOLUNTEERING

Stacy Golden, Coordinator of Pastoral Care for the Archdiocese of Baltimore, will give a presentation on prison ministry titled, "No one is beyond the reach of God's mercy," Pope Francis, on November 18, 2017 from 8:00 a.m. to 1 p.m. (Mass at 8:30 a.m.) at St. Lawrence Martyr Church, 7850 Parkside Blvd., Hanover, MD. abortion. We can show God's mercy and forgiveness by recognizing the signs of post-abortion stress in men and women and provide healing. "Transforming Your Story" (Wendy Giancola) is a bible study used to aid in healing after abortion and can be integrated into prison ministry. Encountering Christ transforms lives so we will explore the Alpha course as a means for evangelization through prison ministry. Assisted by a key Alpha volunteer, Nicole Costello, we will give you a glimpse into running this program in prisons to bring men and women into relationship. Contact Chris Mahaley 410-547-5406.

TALK WITH YOUR LOVED ONES ON END-OF-LIFE ISSUES

Illness and death – whether our own or that of a loved one – are issues many of us avoid thinking and talking about until they are immediately confronting us. Too often we are unprepared for the questions that arise, and find ourselves making difficult decisions in the midst of a crisis, without the benefit of time and reflection. Maryland's bishops have released a pastoral letter, Comfort and Consolation, on care for the sick and dying to encourage Catholics to take that time now, before facing a crisis, so that when illness and death inevitably come, we can face them with the comfort and peace of understanding our faith, and knowing our Lord is there to embrace us in our hour of need. Visit the Maryland Catholic Conference at www.mdathcon.org/comfort for downloading copies or to order.
