ST. IGNATIUS, BALTIMORE FILM SHOWING

On Friday, February 13 at 7:30 PM, in conjunction with the start of the Lenten Season, St. Ignatius Catholic Community is presenting "Brother Sun, Sister Moon". Stunning visual metaphors irradiate this 1972 production about a man who gave up everything -- wealth, rank, and the pleasures of the flesh -- to wear rags, beg food, and seek God in a leper or a field of flowers. More a poem than a biography, the film exalts Francis of Assisi's spirit and message. As a cinematographic poem, Brother Sun, Sister Moon succeeds brilliantly, juxtaposing symbols of worldly riches -- silks, jewels, and scepters of power -- with symbols of spiritual riches -- shoeless friars chanting for joy, a meadow aflame with Umbrian colors, and a trusting sparrow perching on the hand of Francis. This film demonstrates the beauty of his spiritual rebirth as he strips bare before the steps of a cathedral while townspeople and splendidly robed churchmen look on in bemusement. It is director Franco Zeffirelli's way of demonstrating the depth of Francis' commitment to unadorned devotion to God. Zeffirelli trains his lens on Francis the Simple rather than Francis the Complex, the soldier, writer, mystic, reformer, traveler, and dynamic leader who engineered a revolution in religious thought. Francis himself wrote in 1225: "Praise to thee, my Lord, for all thy creatures -- above all Brother Sun Who brings us the day and lends us his light." There is no charge for this event. Popcorn, snacks and beverages will be provided. Date & Time: February 13, 2015 – 7:30PM Location: 740 N. Calvert Street, Baltimore, MD 21202 (Showing is in Ignatian Hall on the lower level) Phone: (410) 837-8883 Email: Parish@St-Ignatius.net Web: www.st-ignatius.net

40 DAYS FOR LIFE

From February 18-March 29, our communities will join with hundreds of other cities and towns for the 40 Days for Life worldwide movement of prayer and fasting, peaceful vigil and community outreach for: protection of unborn babies and their parents, conversion of those involved in abortion, and promotion of a culture of life! With God's help, so far there have been 9,699 babies spared from abortion, 107 abortion workers converted, and 59 abortion centers closed. Please join us on the public sidewalk outside a local abortion facility any day of the week between the hours of 7a.m. and 7 p.m. to be a peaceful and prayerful witness to God's gift of life! Log on to www.40daysforlife.com to sign up for your local vigil.

TALK WITH YOUR LOVED ONES ON END-OF-LIFE ISSUES

Illness and death – whether our own or that of a loved one – are issues many of us avoid thinking and talking about until they are immediately confronting us. Too often we are unprepared for the questions that arise, and find ourselves making difficult decisions in the midst of a crisis, without the benefit of time and reflection. Maryland's bishops have released a pastoral letter, Comfort and Consolation, on care for the sick and dying to encourage Catholics to take that time now, before facing a crisis, so that when illness and death inevitably come, we can face them with the comfort and peace of understanding our faith, and knowing our Lord is there to embrace us in our hour of need. Visit the Maryland Catholic Conference at www.md cathcon.org/comfort for downloading copies or to order.

CONSIDER STUDIES IN THEOLOGY, SCRIPTURE, OR LAY ECCLESIAL MINISTRY

Through its Ecumenical Institute of Theology, St. Mary's Seminary & University offers accredited graduate theological education that is intellectually rigorous, personally enriching, and professionally empowering. Women and men from across the Christian tradition form a diverse learning community where evening and Saturday classes are ideally suited for part-time students with full-time lives. Pursue a master's degree or graduate certificate—or simply take classes (whether as an auditor or for credit). Spring Term 2015 will include courses such as Biblical & Ecumenical Perspectives on Mary; Liturgical Spirituality: East & West; Dorothy Day & American Catholicism, and Faith Development through the Life Cycle (offered in conjunction with this year's MAC conference, Feb.13-15). Applications now being accepted for the 2015 spring semester. Information: www.stmarys.edu/ei; 410/864-4200; ei@stmarys.edu.

OUR DAILY BREAD

Our Daily Bread Hot Meal program, operated by Catholic Charities, is in need of people to prepare and deliver casseroles each month.
