ISLAMIC AWARENESS WEEK

The Muslim Community Cultural Center of Baltimore will host its annual Islamic Awareness Week April 22-26, with exhibits open to the public from 10am-4pm. The MCCCCB transforms into a museum of Islamic history, particularly African American Muslim history. Exhibits are provided by Amir Muhammad the founder of America's Islamic Heritage Museum. Trace America's Islamic heritage from as early as the 1300's with the expedition of Abu Bakr of Mali to the Moors of Spain in the 1600's and the west African slave trade through the 18th and 19th centuries. Learn about Muslim scholars such as Omar Ibn Sayyid and Muslim Civil War heroes. The 20th century features the history of the Nation of Islam and includes many valuable contributors such as Master Fard Muhammad, the Honorable Elijah Muhammad, Sister Clara Muhammad, El-Hajj Malik Shabazz (Malcolm X), Muhammad Ali, and Imam W.D. Mohammed. Islamic Awareness Week culminates with a presentation on Sunday April 26 at 1:30 p.m. by Dr. Hakim Rashid – Howard University: “From Slave Revolts to Black Identity: Islam, Muslims and the Historical Struggle for African American Liberation”.

ST. MARY'S SEMINARY ANNUAL HOLOCAUST REMEMBRANCE SERVICE

On Wednesday, April 22, St. Mary's Seminary & University will host its annual Holocaust Remembrance (Yom HaShoah) Service at 7:00 p.m. This year the service is being planned and led by Rabbi Nina Cardin, adjunct faculty member, and Dr. Brent Laytham, Dean of the Ecumenical Institute, along with members of their fall 2014 class, “Food and Faith.” This class was the inaugural Richman-Linehan Course in Jewish-Christian Studies in the Ecumenical Institute. This year we honor a resilient group of women in the Terezin concentration camp who created a “cookbook of remembering,” now published as In Memory's Kitchen. In the midst of atrocious evil, their seemingly trivial memories of domesticity and celebration became an amazing witness to the power of food and faith to cultivate and sustain courage, hope and love. This interfaith service of prayer, music (provided by violinist Sally Grobani and an a cappella youth choir), and reflection is open to the public and will be held in Laubacher Hall on the St. Mary's campus at Roland Avenue and Northern Parkway in north Baltimore. For further information, contact St. Mary's Ecumenical Institute of Theology at 410/864-4203 or ei@stmarys.edu, or visit www.stmarys.edu/ei. Founded in 1968, the Ecumenical Institute offers fully accredited graduate courses, certificates, and degrees to qualified students of all faith traditions.

PAPAL MASS BUS TRIP

Catholic Review Media is in the early stages of planning a bus trip to be a part of the celebration of Mass Sept. 27 in Philadelphia. The buses would likely leave from a few designated pick-up spots very, VERY early in the morning and return late at night. No hotel accommodations would be needed (hard to get, anyway). While we are awaiting details of time and ticketing, there won't be any guarantee you'll actually see Pope Francis, but you will be in the City of Brotherly Love for a major celebration with about a million fellow Catholics. Our bus pilgrims will receive round-trip transportation, bottled water, a special rosary and more. Are you interested in learning more? Click here to let us know you're interested, and we will provide you with more details when the final schedule is announced. For parishes interested in booking a full bus (45-48 pilgrims), email Associate Publisher Chris Gunty at cgunty@catholicreview.org.

TALK WITH YOUR LOVED ONES ON END-OF-LIFE ISSUES

Illness and death – whether our own or that of a loved one – are issues many of us avoid thinking and talking about until they are immediately confronting us. Too often we are unprepared for the questions that arise, and find ourselves making difficult decisions in the midst of a crisis, without the benefit of time and reflection. Maryland's bishops have released a pastoral letter, Comfort and Consolation, on care for the sick and dying to encourage Catholics to take that time now, before facing a crisis, so that when illness and death inevitably come, we can face them with the comfort and peace of understanding our faith, and knowing our Lord is there to embrace us in our hour of need. Visit the Maryland Catholic Conference at www.mdathcon.org/comfort for downloading copies or to order.

CONSIDER STUDIES IN THEOLOGY, SCRIPTURE, OR LAY ECCLESIAL MINISTRY

Through its Ecumenical Institute of Theology, St. Mary's Seminary & University offers accredited graduate theological education that is intellectually rigorous, personally enriching, and professionally empowering. Women and men from across the Christian tradition form a diverse learning community where evening and Saturday classes are ideally suited for part-time students with full-time lives. Pursue a master's degree or graduate certificate—or simply take classes (whether as an auditor or for credit). Spring Term 2015 will include courses such as Biblical & Ecumenical Perspectives on Mary; Liturgical Spirituality: East & West; Dorothy Day & American Catholicism, and Faith Development through the Life

Cycle (offered in conjunction with this year's MAC conference, Feb.13-15). Applications now being accepted for the 2015 spring semester. Information: www.stmarys.edu/ei; 410/864-4200; ei@stmarys.edu.

OUR DAILY BREAD
