1151.2 The Deacon Life and Ministry Board

1151.2.1 Purposes of the Deacon Life and Ministry Board

The Deacon Life and Ministry Board (formerly called the Deacon Personnel Board), was formed in 1989 to serve the professional and personal needs of the deacons of the Archdiocese of Baltimore. The Board does not interfere with the personal relationship that exists between the deacon and his bishop. Its purpose is to serve as a resource to deacons in establishing and maintaining satisfactory and fulfilling working and living situations, ongoing formation, and assisting the Archbishop in matters pertaining to deacons. (see Appendix 9)

The Board serves in an advisory capacity to the Archbishop and his staff through the Office of the Diaconate on matters relating to deacons of the Archdiocese. The specific purposes of the Board are:

- To serve as a resource to deacons in establishing and maintaining satisfactory and fulfilling working and living situations, ongoing formation, and assisting the Archbishop in matters pertaining to deacons.
- To facilitate communication and interaction for the deacons of the Archdiocese with the Archbishop on matters relating to their status, functions, and welfare.
- To recommend deacon assignments consonant with the pastoral needs of the Archdiocese and with the talents and interests of individual deacons.
- To provide a recognized forum for the discussion of all matters concerning the professional interests and the welfare of the deacons.
- To represent the views of regional and peer groups of deacons by recommending personnel policies, programs and practices which will utilize and develop the talents of the deacons, and increase their satisfaction in ministry.
- To recommend policies that provide for the spiritual development, health care, and career growth of deacons and for sound and equitable administration of the pastoral resources of the Archdiocese.

1151.2.2 Status of the Deacon Life and Ministry Board

- The Deacon Life and Ministry Board is formally constituted by, and exists under the authority of, the Archbishop. It is an advisory body with a changing membership resulting from periodic elections and appointments. (see Appendix 9 for specific documents related to the Board)
- The Board serves the interests of all deacons and their families within or serving outside the Archdiocese.
- The Board's recommendations are made to the Director of Clergy Personnel and the Director of Deacon Personnel and, through them, to the Archbishop. When appropriate, the Director of Deacon Personnel consults the Executive Director of Human Resources.

- The Board, through the Director of Clergy Personnel and the Director of Deacon Personnel, develops and maintains communications and collegial relationships with other Archdiocesan bodies having related purposes or mutual interests.
